Between the Lights

Sunday 17th August 7.30pm

Sponsored by: Knox

We close the festival by a showing of the debut film by local Cumbrian film makers. The film is a romantic drama with a liberal dose of the supernatural, in which we visit our characters over three consecutive Christmases.

12

"[Between The Lights]... builds to a shivery and lovelorn climax reminiscent of Truly Madly Deeply and The Box of Delights". Phil Hoad – The Guardian

Q&A sessions

You will notice in the brochure that alongside a number of our film festival screenings we are hosting Q&A sessions.

Here's who you will have the chance to chat with after the films....

Supernova - Peter Macqueen, who plays Clive in the film will be joining us to tell us about his experiences on set.

Snack Shack - Cumberland councillor Andrew Semple, whose band 'The Limps' feature in the soundtrack, discusses how anyone can be creative, if given the chance!

East is East - Local actor and writer Emma Rydal, who starred in the film, shares how she got her role, what it's like working on low budget films and behind the scenes photos.

Between the Lights - Director Michael Groom (who also co-wrote the film with his brother David) chose Cumbria as one of the locations in the film, and was also born in Wigton.
